

Digital Imaging Design

1 semester – ½ credit

Ms. Atkinson

Digital Imaging Design class is an introductory course using digital pictures and Photoshop using principles of design, color theory and composition. Digital Imaging Design addresses the dynamic cultural significance of symbols, images, photography and illustration. The use of problem solving and conceptual thinking will be a foundation of self-expression throughout your projects.

Projects:

- Photoshop basics
- Creating patterns
- Digital photo hunt
- Collages
- Advertisements
- My Take on Cleveland (field trip)
- 5 photo series
- Self-portraits
- Post secret
- Photoshop designs
- Greeting cards

Student Supplies:

- Digital Camera
- USB cord
- *there will be a cost to develop some of your work at Office Max/Cosco
- Pocket folder or ½ binder

Evaluation Procedures:

- Projects
- Effort
- Creativity
- Time on task
- School grading policy

Class Expectations:

- Be creative
- Be respectable
- Follow directions
- Be on task